

DMCA Takedown Policy

Precision Custom Products, Inc. ("PCPI") supports the protection of intellectual property and asks the users of this and related websites to do the same. It is the policy of PCPI to respond to all notices of alleged copyright infringement. Notice is specifically given that PCPI is not responsible for the content on other websites that any user may find or access when using. This notice describes the information that should be provided in notices alleging copyright infringement found specifically on pcpiplastics.com, and this notice is designed to make alleged infringement notices to PCPI as straightforward as possible and, at the same time, minimize the number of notices that PCPI receives that are spurious or difficult to verify. The form of notice set forth below is consistent with the form suggested by the United States Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA") which may be found at the U.S. Copyright official website: <http://www.copyright.gov>. It is the policy of PCPI, in appropriate circumstances and in its sole discretion, to disable and/or terminate the accounts of users of pcpiplastics.com who may infringe upon the copyrights or other intellectual property rights of PCPI and/or others. Our response to a notice of alleged copyright infringement may result in removing or disabling access to material claimed to be a copyright infringement and/or termination of the subscriber. To file a notice of an alleged copyright infringement with us, you are required to provide a written communication only by email or postal mail. Notice is also given that you may be liable for damages (including costs and attorney fees) if you materially misrepresent that a product or activity is infringing upon your copyright.
